

HOPE FOR HOUSTON RESOURCES

With Hurricane Harvey raining down and leaving the region devastated, we just want to let you know that our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time.

We hope that you are safe and well. Here are some informational links to help during this time while you recover from the storm, provided by our partners at FinFit:

- Portlight is providing assistance to those with disabilities.
- Driscoll Children's Hospital is taking in evacuated children from the NICU in hospitals throughout the Houston area.
- Austin Pets Alive is a shelter in Austin that has been transporting as many shelter animals as possible out of the affected area.
- Houston Humane Society is also helping to care for and shelter pets in the area.
- All Hands Volunteers' Response Team is currently outside of San Antonio, ready to launch a major response.
- Airbnb is asking for people to donate their homes for free to those evacuating the area and whose homes have been destroyed. They are also waiving all service fees for those in need.
- Texas Diaper Bank is providing diapers and other essentials for young children and infants. Diapers are not traditionally provided in emergency shelters.
- Save the Children is directly helping displaced children and families on the ground.
